

DRAMATIC PLAY

When children are offered possibilities to use their imagination they..

Broaden their understanding of the world around them.

Negotiate roles, relationships, choices & decisions.

Use their imagination to explore real life events.

Use their play to imagine and explore ideas creatively.

Manipulate and use real life tools with increasing competence.

Become independent, confident communicators.

